Spread the Joy

Rik Daniels helps in organizing meals prepared for an assisted living facility in the southern sector of Dallas. Each second Saturday before the meals are prepared and packaged for the less fortunate of Dallas, there are meals prepared, packaged and delivered to an assisted living facility that is operated by the city of Dallas. UFTFTH was introduced to the assisted living facility through Pastor Chris Simmons. Imagine the joy the residents receive in knowing that there are people who care for them and prepare meals for them every second Saturday of the month.

Member Spotlight

Mary Smith is part of the early morning crew each second Saturday of the month. Being a part of the early morning crew means she helps in preparing the meals to be served to those in need. After helping to prepare the meals she will work in the serving line to help fill the to-go plates for the less fortunate and members of the assisted living facility. Mary learned of UFTFTH from Stephanie Sims and decided to join the organization in the end of 2018. Mary volunteers with UFTFTH every second Saturday of each month because she loves giving back, enjoys being around like minded people who love to serve others as well, and it makes her feel good to give and make an impact in the lives of those less fortunate than her.

How to Become Involved

Every second Saturday of each month UFTFTH has decided to come together as an organization to perform kingdom work by preparing and serving meals for the less fortunate and an assisted living facility in south Dallas. Attendees are also fed spiritually by the word brought by a minister. UFTFTH works in conjunction with Cornerstone Baptist Church, who is the provider of "The Kitchen." If you are unable to attend on second Saturday's, there is still an opportunity to assist UFTFTH through monetary donations at PayPal.me/UFTFTH. Every $10 dollars that are donated will help to provide the food to prepare 3 hot meals to distribute to the homeless. All organizations are extended the opportunity to assist with the homeless of Dallas. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact us by email at UFTFTH@yahoo.com or contact Ron Pleasant at (214) 682 - 7185.
